

Employee Do / Don't

✓ DO

- Save the proof before you change any stage
- Copy terms word for word into the record, with the date and sender
- Write UNKNOWN when no document says it
- Keep every version. Make a new file; never overwrite
- Open the attachment. Take facts from the document, not from the email describing it
- Keep the producer's signature on hold until the artist's LOD + certificate are in
- Ask every co-producer to confirm the split in writing
- Start vendor paperwork early, at TERMS
- Follow the clock: +3 days → follow-up · +3 → final follow-up · +2 → escalate
- Reply on the same thread so the history stays together
- Update "Next action" and "Due" every time you touch a placement
- Review every open placement on Monday
- Escalate the same day when a card says 🚩

✗ DON'T

- Don't negotiate or suggest terms, even small ones
- Don't pick between two conflicting numbers
- Don't sign anything for anyone
- Don't send or ask for bank details, tax IDs, or ID documents by email (they go on the label's own forms)
- Don't change a payment route or accept a new one
- Don't release signature pages before the LOD gate is cleared
- Don't mark anything done because someone said so ("sent," "signed," "OK to pay")
- Don't tell a label whether it can release a song
- Don't give legal, tax, or accounting opinions. "I'll check with my manager" is always a good answer
- Don't send a third follow-up. Escalate instead
- Don't share placement records or contacts outside Vox Nova, the producer, and the producer's attorney
- Don't "fix" a document yourself (spelling, payee, amounts). Ask the sender to correct it

When in doubt

STOP → DOCUMENT → ESCALATE
